Incredible Mini-Moon Destinations That Are Surprisingly Close to Home

Charleston, South Carolina

Charleston is one of the most popular U.S. tourist destinations for a reason: There's an incredible food scene, excellent shopping, and a must-visit downtown historic district. And while there are plenty of beautiful hotels in the city, couples looking to explore and relax should stay at The Beach Club Charleston at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina. Located in Mt. Pleasant, the property is just a 10-minute drive away from all of the action in downtown Charleston, but it feels a world away thanks to its waterfront views and two Instagram-worthy pools. We recommend spending the afternoon poolside and then head into town to shop on King Street, wander down Rainbow Row, and eat dinner (book a table at FIG).
